

Euro Access

For a European Accessibility for Public Transport for People with Disabilities

Euro Access Final workshop

Brussels, 3 December 2008

Closure of the workshop

Claude Marin-Lamellet – INRETS

Main issues

- The holistic approach: build transportation systems accessible for all
 - Design for all
 - Human rights
 - Participation to society
 - The whole transport chain
- Gaps to be filled
 - From the policy to transport system: framework for planning and decision making
 - Definitions of criteria for best practices and cost benefits analysis

Research perspectives

- Need for integrating transport policy, urban and societal planning
 - A new way to design transport systems
- More research is needed regarding people with sensory and cognitive impairments, learning disabilities or mental health
 - Specific issue regarding the aging of the population
- Gender issue should be developed

The screenshot shows the homepage of the Euro Access website. The browser address bar displays "http://www.euro-access.org/". The website features a navigation menu with icons for accessibility (wheelchair, hearing aid, face, eye) and menu items: Home, Project, Activities, Consortium, Contact, and Members. The main content area is divided into three columns:

- NEWS & AGENDA: Lists three events: April 21-23, 2008 (Lisboa), October 9-11, 2007 (Lund), and February 5-6, 2007 (Bron, France).
- WELCOME TO EURO ACCESS WEBSITE! Contains a photo of people and text about demographic changes and accessibility in Europe. It mentions the EU's perspective on disabled citizens and the challenge of ensuring mobility for all.
- PARTNERS ONLY: Includes a login form with fields for "Login" (containing "cmlamellet") and "Password" (containing ""). It also has links for "Forgot your password?", "Remember my Login", and a "Connexion" button. Below the form is the "SIXTH FRAMEWORK PROGRAMME" logo.

At the bottom of the page, there is a footer with the text: "By C. Marin-Lamellet Scientific Coordinator INRETS Inrets | Lescot | Contact".
